LETTER FROM the VICE PRESIDENT

13 Linda Ave., White Plains, N. Y.

Sister President and members,— It is with sorrow and regret I cannot be with you all, owing to present conditions, however. you have my finance and my prayers for your success. I pray as you meet face to face and throughought the entire session, you will let the same mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus. Let nothing be done through strife, but I pray in loveliness of mind, et each esteem others better than themselves.

I wish to express my sympathy and sorrow at the passing of our loved ones, Sister Mattie Davis and Elder B. C. Whitfield who were always faithful, and ready to brighten the gloom of sorrow with a word of cheer.

If I can be any service to you at any time I will gladly do my best.

Sincerely your sister in Christ, Sister Minnie L. Meadows.
